Drankbeleving

RARE AMERICAN & CANADIAN CRAFT BEER

A LOT HAS HAPPENED

A new website, and even more to taste

Hi,

It's been a busy autumn at Drankbeleving. I rebuilt the whole website, expanded the range quite a bit and there are new gift vouchers. And all through November, a few bottles are at a sharper price. Here's everything in one place.

01 · NEW WEBSITE

Drankbeleving.nl, all new

The site is calmer, faster and easier to browse. You can now filter the collection by Untappd score, ABV, brewery and style. Every brewery and style has its own page, and in the Beer guide you can read what barrel aged beer actually is and how best to store and serve an imperial stout.

The whole site is now available in English as well as Dutch.
